Dedication

After

To Our Parents:

Whose lives have been dedicated toward developing in us all that which is noble and good,

Whose unselfish sacrifices have made possible our new school to be used as an instrument in preparing better citizens of tomorrow,

Whose love has instilled in us a greater desire for individual learning and service to all mankind,

Whose wishes are that each of our lives may manifest gallantry, fearlessness, and loyalty to God,

We hereby dedicate this the first edition of the Nordahi.
